

OUTLINE OF FORMS USED UNDER CAR 26

NEW FORM

SUPERSEDES FORM

AC 26-1	Application for Airport Control Tower Operator Rating and Certificate. Obtained from Airways Operation Division, Washington, D. C.	None
AC 20-4	Certificate of Medical Examiner. Issued by authorized Bureau Medical Examiners.	None
AC 26-2	Acknowledgment of receipt of application. Sent out by Airways Operation Division.	None
AC 26-3	Notice of appointment as Bureau of Air Commerce Representative and letter of instructions. Sent out by the Director of the Bureau of Air Commerce, Washington, D. C.	None
AC 26-4	Notice of selection as member of examining board to pass upon qualifications of applicants for associate and senior operator ratings. Sent out by the Bureau Representative.	None
AC 26-5	Notice to applicant to appear for examination. Sent out by Bureau Representative.	None
AC 26-6	Examination Report. Made by Bureau Representative.	None
AC 20-7	Temporary Certificate of Competency. Issued by Bureau Representative. Used for junior, associate, and senior operators. If applicant holds one rating and applies for a higher rating (or reverts to a lower rating) pick up the Certificate of Competency held before issuing temporary certificate.	None
AC 20-8	Identification Card. Issued by Registration Section, Certificate & Inspection Division, Bureau of Air Commerce, Washington, D. C.	None
AC 20-9	Certificate of Competency. Issued by Registration Section, Certificate & Inspection Division, Bureau of Air Commerce, Washington, D. C.	None
AC 26-7	Application for Renewal. Accomplished through the nearest Bureau of Air Commerce Inspector.	None
AC 20-11	Certificate of Competency. Issued by Bureau Inspector when certificate is renewed.	None

NOTE: Detailed instructions as to procedure will be found in the forms noted above.