

Cancelled 00-2EE

AC NO: 00-42

DATE: 5/24/74

ADVISORY CIRCULAR

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION

SUBJECT: DEFERMENT - ANNUAL FAA INTERNATIONAL AVIATION MAINTENANCE SYMPOSIUM/
INVITATION TO ATTEND THE 1974-75 AIRWORTHINESS REVIEW CONFERENCE

The Federal Aviation Administration wishes to advise all interested persons that we have postponed the 10th Annual FAA International Aviation Maintenance Symposium. It has been rescheduled for December 1975 in Washington, D.C. Detailed information on the 10th Symposium will be forthcoming early in 1975.

The FAA also wishes to remind all interested persons that the first Biennial Airworthiness Review Conference will convene December 2-11, 1974, at the Shoreham Americana Hotel, 2500 Calvert Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20008. This Conference is a key step in the FAA's recently-established program for the systematic review and updating of existing airworthiness regulations. The overall program is described in Notice 74-5, which appeared in the Federal Register (39 F.R. 5785) on February 15, 1974. For further details please write to the Federal Aviation Administration, Flight Standards Service, Attention: Airworthiness Review Staff, AFS-70, 800 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20591. The telephone number is (202) 426-7815.

Handwritten signature of C. R. Melugin, Jr. in cursive script.

C. R. MELUGIN, JR.
Acting Director, Flight Standards Service