ADVISORY CIRCULAR

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION

SUBJECT: ANNOUNCEMENT OF REPORT AS-71-1 "MINIMUM NEEDS FOR AIRPORT
FIRE FIGHTING AND RESCUE SERVICES" DATED JANUARY 1971

1. PURPOSE.

- a. This circular announces the availability of the subject report and describes how to get it. This report was made for the Federal Aviation Administration from a contract study by an independent consulting engineering firm. The contents of this report reflect the views of the contractor who is responsible for the facts and the accuracy of the data presented therein. The contents do not necessarily reflect the official views or policy of the Department of Transportation. This report does not constitute a standard, specification or regulation.
- b. The study was done in connection with work to certify airports under the Airport and Airway Development Act of 1970. This work included a literature search, analysis of reports, extrapolation of data from various reports and discussions of related economic, operational, and safety matters with airport managements and industry groups. The major elements involved the quantities and discharge rates of fire extinguishing agents, fire trucks, truck crews, fire stations, communication systems, protective clothing and training.
