SUBJECT: 1969 AVIATION MAINTENANCE SYMPOSIUM - ADVANCES IN AVIATION MAINTENANCE TECHNOLOGY

ANNOUNCEMENT AND INVITATION

The Federal Aviation Administration will convene its fifth annual aviation maintenance symposium at the Skirvin Hotel, Oklahoma City, on December 9, 10, and 11, 1969. This year's theme, ADVANCES IN AVIATION MAINTENANCE TECHNOLOGY, will bring into focus the technological advances in the maintenance of aircraft.

This is the opportune time and place for an open exchange of information between the manufacturers, owners, operators, pilots, maintenance technicians, service engineers, government and others who are seeking and achieving positive gains in new maintenance techniques, skills and programs. The 2½-day event will be scheduled for the presentation of selected papers and related panel discussions in five distinct sessions. The symposium will close at noon on the third day to accommodate travel requirements.

Persons who plan to attend, and particularly those persons who desire to present papers or serve on panels, are requested to submit their names and titles of their papers by August 15, 1969. Respondents will be notified of the final arrangements and will be issued a copy of the agenda no later than October 15, 1969.

Representatives of the press, radio and television are invited to attend. An adequately equipped press room will be available.

Initiated by: FS-310

An invitation is extended to any company to provide an exhibit for display at the symposium. Exhibits should be applicable to aviation maintenance. The hotel's attractive exhibit area is of a size to adequately handle static or operable displays. Exhibits requiring demonstrations or presentations of the subject by exhibitor personnel are welcome. Companies desiring to exhibit should contact the FAA, Maintenance Branch, AC-230, P. O. Box 25082, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73125, Telephone (405) 686-4171, not later than October 15, 1969, for exhibit space reservations and detailed information.

If further details of the symposium, agenda, speakers or papers, are required, please address all inquiries and replies to:
