Texas highways are happy ways.

Along a modern highway in the Nation's largest State.

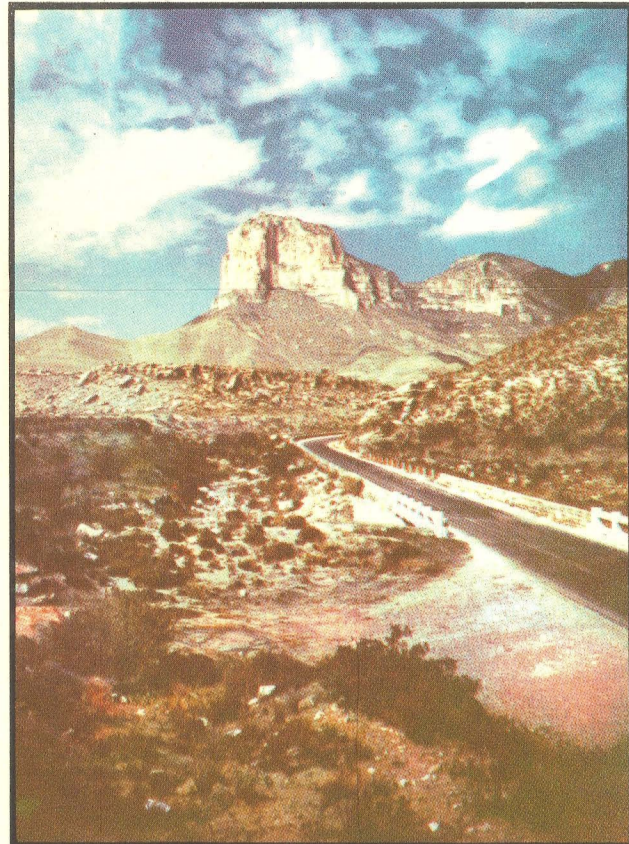

Lumber mill in the pine forests of East Texas.

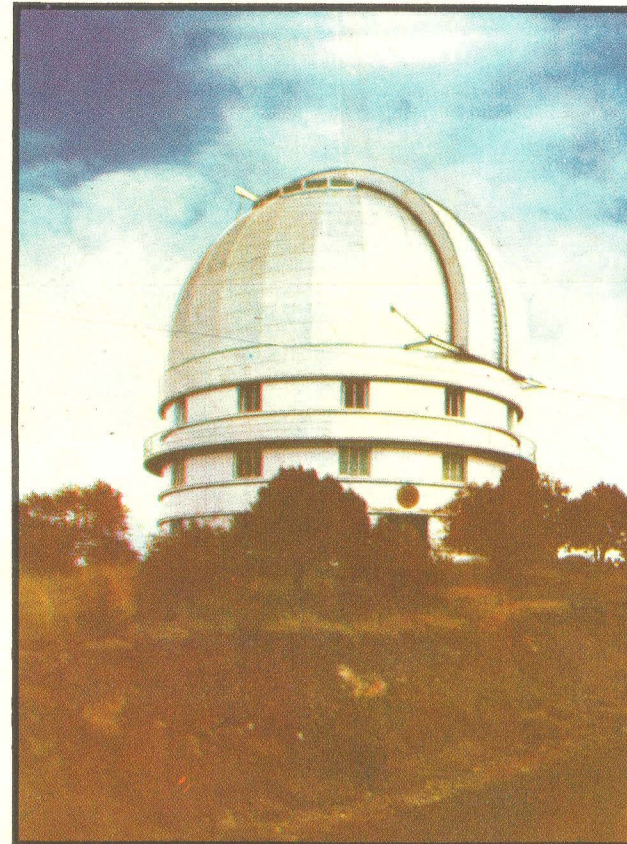

Girls and a cowboy guide off for a "bronc" ride on a Texas dude ranch.

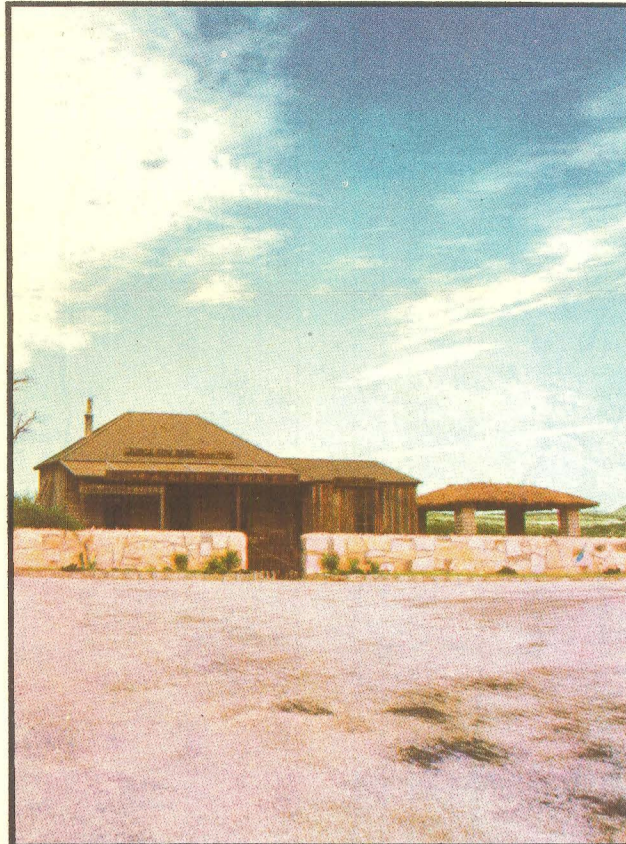

San Jacinto Monument—on the battlefield near Houston where Texas' independence was won.

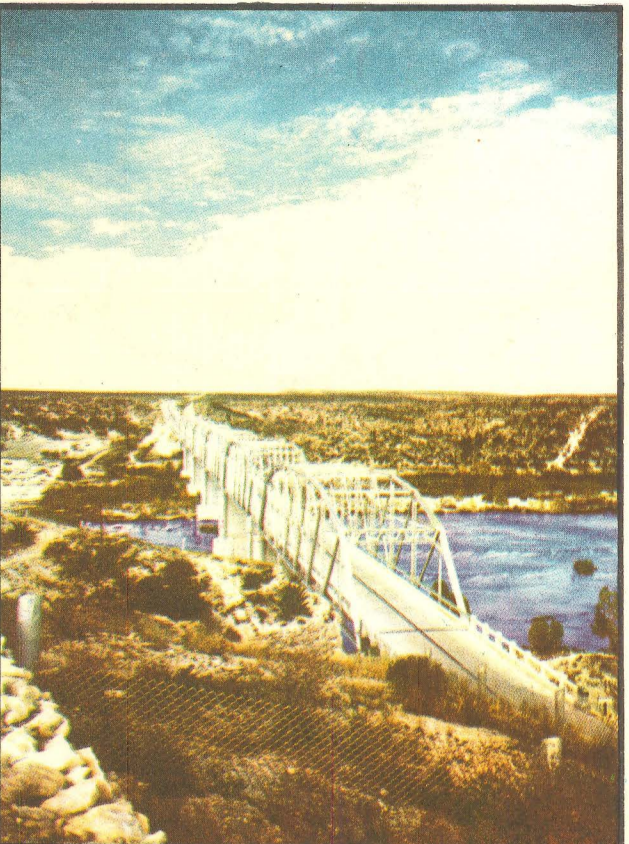

"El Capitan"—famous peak in the Guadalupe Mountains in far West Texas.

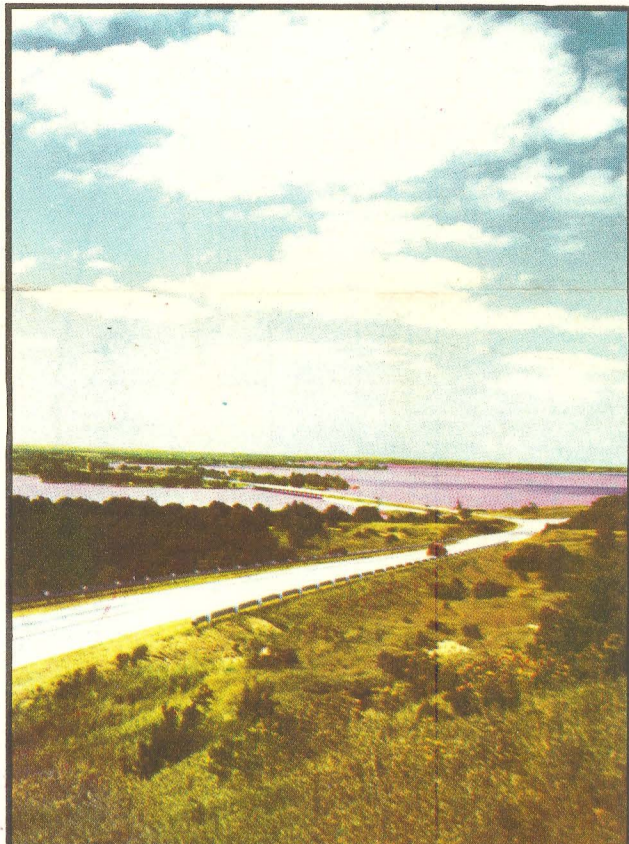

McDonald Observatory in the Davis Mountains above historic Fort Davis in West Texas.

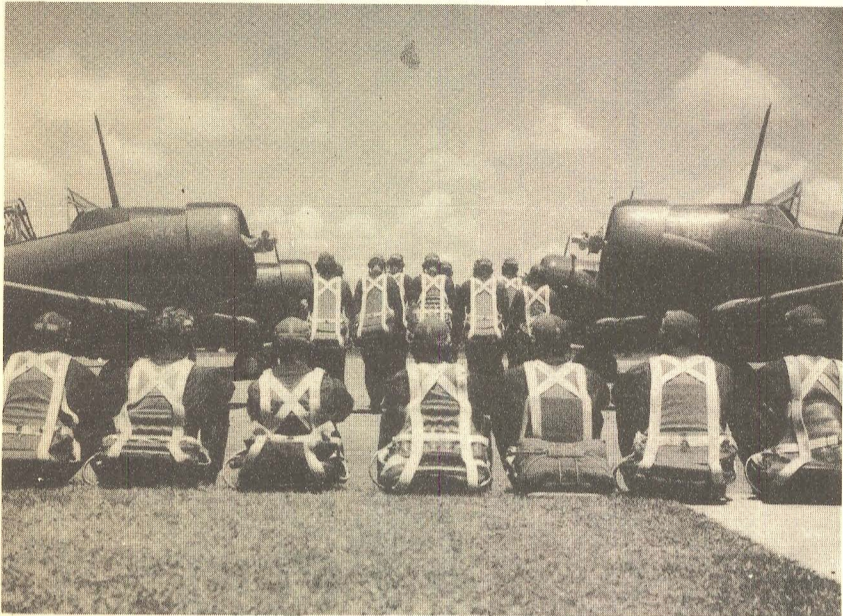

"The Law West of the Pecos." The frontier "courthouse" of "Judge" Roy Bean at Langtry, on U. S. Highway 90, and the Mexican Border.

Bridge across Devil's River on U.S. Highway 90 near Del Rio.

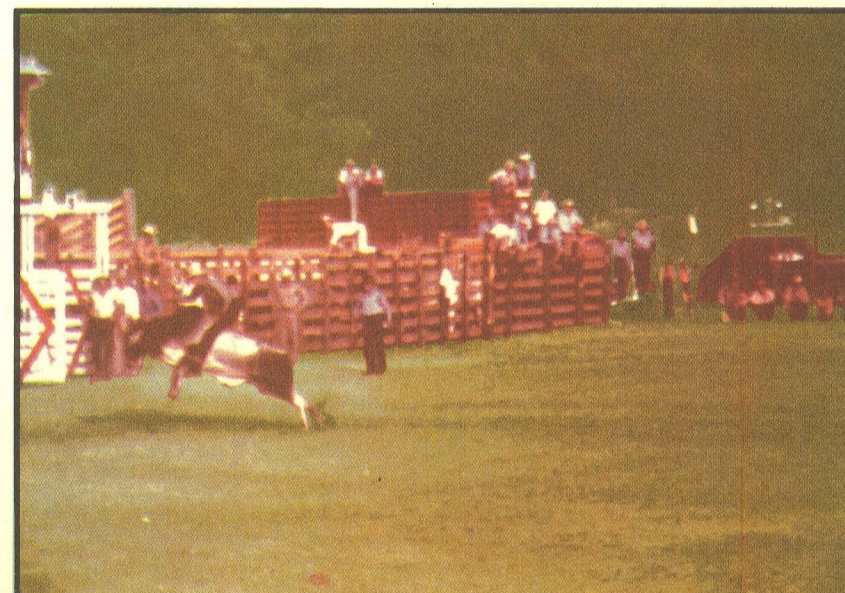

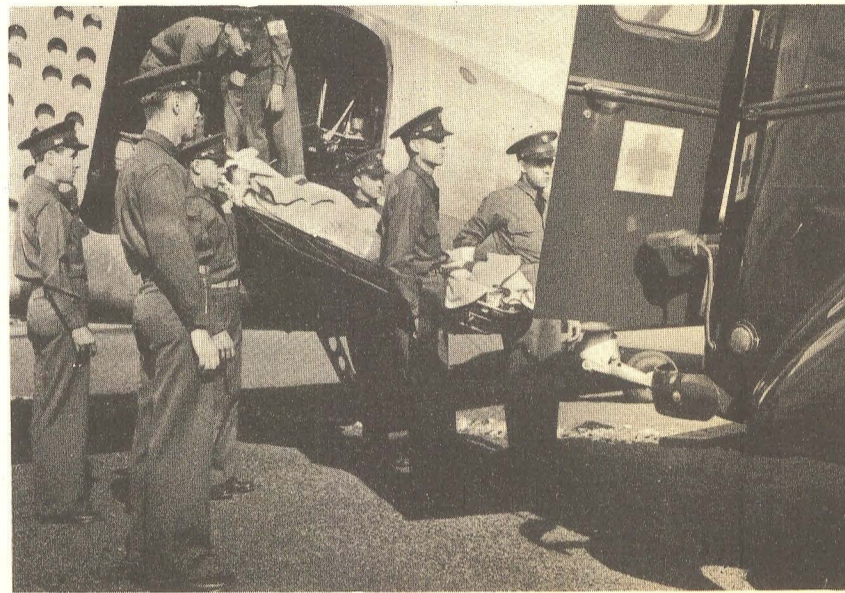

Lake Waco in a picturesque setting near Waco in Central Texas.

Reefish atmosphere of Landa Park, New Braunfels.

In one of the oil fields that make Texas the world's largest oil producing and refining area.

"Let 'Er Buck"—Cowboy riding a Brahman bull at a Texas rodeo.

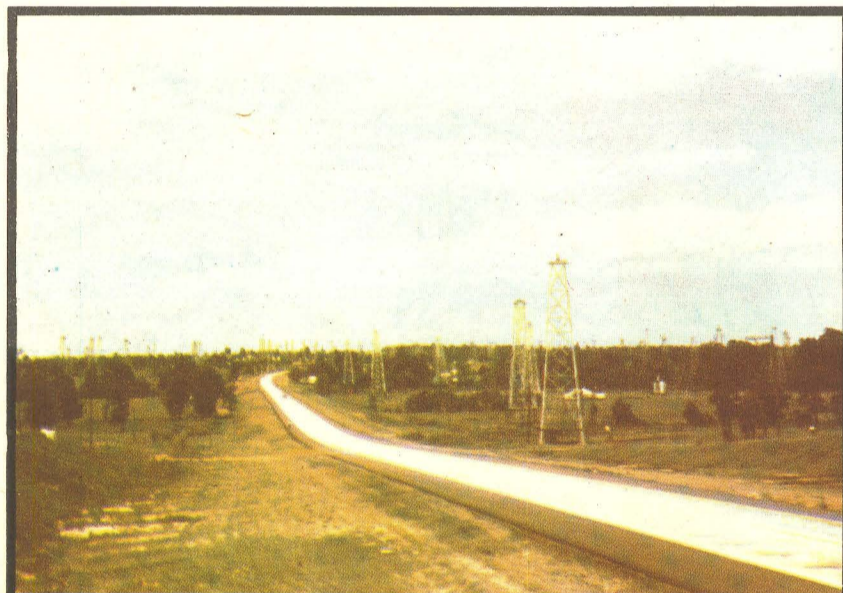

Highway causeway at Galveston—blooming oleanders in the foreground. These colorful, flowering shrubs line the streets of this famed Gulf resort city.

Speedboat racing on Lake Austin, framed by the picturesque hills of the Texas capital city region.

Texas Bluebonnet belles—in a field of the State flowers—Deep in the Heart of Texas.

A view of historic old San Jose Mission of San Antonio, through one of its ancient stone arches.

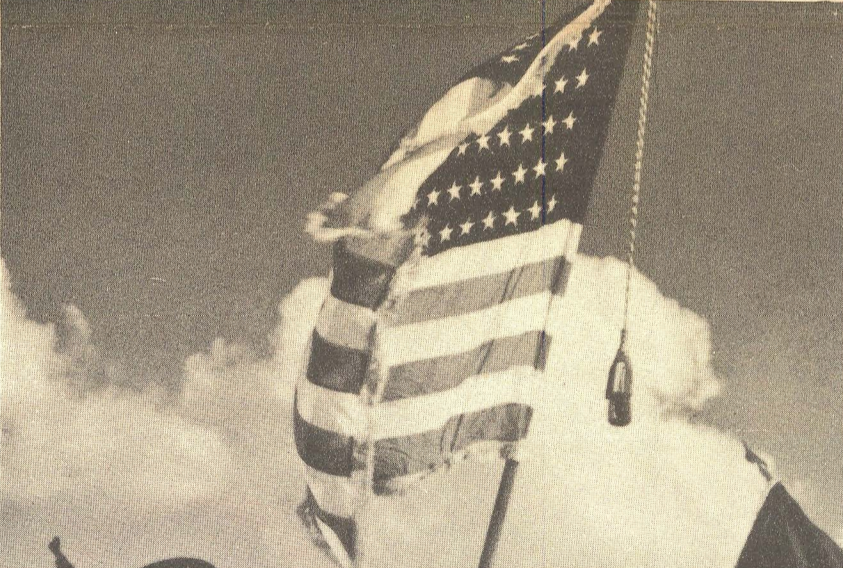

"Where the Buffalo Roam"—A herd of the native American buffaloes on the Morgan Ranch near Kerrville.

On the "green" of one of the hundreds of golf courses in the Lone Star State.
