The U. S. Department of Transportation's Urban Mass Transportation Administrator Frank C. Herringer on June 11, announced the appointment of two Associate Administrators to offices within the Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA).

Robert H. McManus was appointed Associate Administrator of the Office of Transit Planning. He was formerly Acting Associate Administrator in the post. The Office provides assistance in transportation planning, engineering, and transit improvement. It manages the technical study grant program, hardware demonstrations and service development activities.

Jerome C. Premo, formerly Acting Associate Administrator of the Office of Capital Assistance, was appointed Associate Administrator. The office handles all UMTA capital grants and loans, including funds for the acquisition, construction and improvement of equipment and facilities, and the advance acquisition of real
