Secretary of Transportation Claude S. Brinegar today announced the appointment of George M. Jones of San Rafael, California, to the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Transportation Quality.

The 21 member Committee evaluates Departmental programs, recommends transportation initiatives and acts as a citizens' sounding board.

"The Department recognizes the need for obtaining the views and advice of the private citizen," Secretary Brinegar said. "I welcome Mr. Jones to his new role of representing transportation consumers."

The Citizens' Advisory Committee reports its findings to the Secretary through the Assistant Secretary for Environment, Safety and Consumer Affairs. Its members serve a maximum term of three years.

Mr. Jones received his B.A. degree in economics from the University of California, Berkeley, and his M.A. in economics from the University of Seattle, Washington. He is a consultant in transport economics in private practice and with the Matson Research Corporation.

Mr. Jones is a member of the Marine Yacht Club and his professional associations include the American Economics Association, National Association of Business Economists and the Transportation Research Forum.
