URBAN MASS TRANSPORTATION ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20590

FOR RELEASE TUESDAY A.M.
August 7, 1973

UMTA 73-79
Phone: (202) 426-4043

Frank C. Herringer, Administrator for the Department of Transportation's Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA), today announced the appointment of Judith T. Connor to the post of Special Assistant to the Administrator.

In making the announcement, Mr. Herringer noted that Mrs. Connor's previous experience in the government would serve as valuable guidance in the execution of her new job. He also added that Mrs. Connor will be responsible for initiating or participating in technical and administrative matters relating to all aspects of UMTA's policies and programs that require his personal attention.

Mrs. Connor comes to the post from the U.S. Department of Commerce where she had been the Director of the Business Policy Analysis Division since May 1972. In addition, she has held several previous positions with Commerce, commencing in July 1971 as a member of the Secretary's Policy Development Staff and later as the Director of Special Studies.

Before coming to Washington, Mrs. Connor was a Partner of Excalibur Associates, in New York City. She also worked in the Marketing and Strategic Planning Department of Trans World Airlines and as a Marketing Statistician at Pacific Telephone Company, San Francisco.

Born and raised in Toronto, Canada, Mrs. Connor graduated from Wellesley College and received her Masters in Business Administration from Columbia University.

She and her husband, James, maintain an apartment in Washington, D. C. and their permanent residence is at Woodmont Farm, McConnellsburg, Pennsylvania.
