

Percent of Motor Vehicle Crash Fatalities Who Were Alive At Scene Post-Crash by State, 2019-2023

Nationally, 43% of motor vehicle crash fatalities between 2019 and 2023 were alive at the scene when emergency services arrived but later died (within 30 days of the crash). Of these, about one-third occurred in rural areas and two-thirds in urban areas.