MOONLIGHT CRUISE

Friday, June 29 from 8 to 12 P. M.

This time we all can go down the river together -- as we end the fiscal year -- what better time.

So wear your informal sports clothes --- B Y O L and dance down the Capitol's famed river -- get a water's level view of the Washington National Airport in action (Friday night is best for this) -- tour Marshall Hall Park and if your lucky, win a jackpot or two --- then on the wayback we will draw the lucky numbers for the cold champagne --- 12 bottles of the best from the west.

So come along with me down past ole Virginie - see your contact rep soon as the boat holds about 250 and watch for more info in a flyer on the first of June.

NEW QUOTES FROM THE

CO-OP V. P.

The Easter Candy Sale was most successful thanks to the grand support received from our fellow employees. Our thanks go to Mrs. Mary Palmer, Mrs. Juanita Gibbs, and Mr. George Cobert for their most able assistance during the sale. While we are at it, thanks to those in 1711 who so patiently awaited the late shipment. The order arrived in our city on schedule; however, the difficulty in getting it across town was another story. There are plans to acquire discount privileges for all members at various events and shows in the area.

Watch for more info. . . .

SOFTBALL

The men's softball team started May 8 against H E W but were rained out. The men play on the Ellipse Playground at 7 P M and their schedule is as follows:

May 15	S E C
May 22	F P C
May 29	Congress Sec.
June 5	F C C
June 12	H E W
June 19	S E C
June 26	F P C
July 3	Congress Sec.
July 10	F C C

The women's softball team started practicing May 14 and will be playing their games at 23rd and Constitution Avenue, N. W. Schedule of games is not available at this time. New players are invited to participate and may call Bill Carnaghi on Ext. 3161.

BOWLING

As the season closed for the Wheaton Duckpin League, the championship was won by the Kitty Hawks - Jeniece Allard, Clint Allard, Bernie Davis, Gene Donovan, and Kay Bridgeman.

In the Ten-pin League, the F A Club sponsored the team trophy which was won by the Fabulous Five - Karen Skrei, Robert Little, Arthur Stevens, Frank Beeton, and Tom Breznay for the Airport.

The Club is planning to participate in the Inter-Agency Duckpin League on Mondays at 7 P. M. commencing in Sept. at the Fairlane Alleys on University Boulevard in Maryland. Minimum team average of 560 and maximum of 590 is required to qualify. All male duckpin bowlers averaging 107 or higher and interested contact Bill Carnaghi, on Ext. 3161.

NEW ORLEANS PARTY IMPRESSIONS

Gee whiz, the good ship Mount Vernon may never be the same, but it was the scene of a real fine New Orleans Party on April 27. Looking behind the scenes at some of the problems like the last minute boat switch from the Sea Belle to the Mount Vernon, it was almost a miracle that the boat was ready for a party. The fact that it was ready was due to the effort of many people including a number from Management Services, the Carpenter Shop, Rosina Jacobi and her ticket sales and table plans. Others who helped were Tom Royals, the Club Pres. and his wife and five guests from Afghanistan in Washington with I A S, who led

(New Orleans Party cont.) in decorating the two decks that were used for Pete Kelly's Blue Room. -- Charles Lamm, V. P. for Coop, his wife and Mary Palmer and her husband sweated out the construction of the booths on Bourbon Street and came up winners by having them set up as the ship docked.-- Charlotte Boeck, Betty Matthews and the Hostess girls - Vivian Ritchey, Judy Goodrich, Carol Fellerman, Sally States, Pat Palencsar, Mary Ann Gaval, and Eleanor Kopp were all over the boat decorating, setting up tables and chairs, getting the tablecloths, center-pieces and table numbers in place and finally after a quick change of clothes, being gracious hostess' to the party goers.-

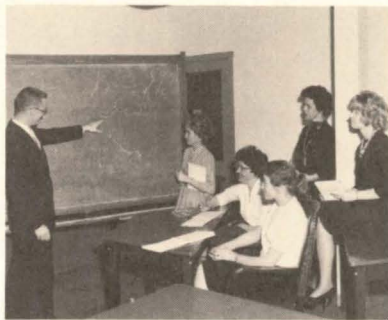

Bob Collins led the big band from the solo trumpet chair as that group performed in admirable fashion, while Greg Eckholm's Jazz Group kept things rocking all evening long on the lower deck Jazz Room. - - -

Total attendance ran something over 600 people including the Deputy Administrator, General Grant, Deputy Administrators Allen Dean and Robert Shank, and Service Directors Joseph Blatt and Don King.

Pic. No. 1 -- This Portfolio Planning group is listening to Instructor Larry Conant. The course is run for members who have either completed the basic course or who have had some experience with investing. This six hour course is limited to groups of 10.

Pic. No. 2 -- James Rouse of Internal Revenue Service is showing some of the fine points of Gregg Shorthand to the girls in our Intermediate Shorthand course which finished on March 31.

At the present time, Irma Bowen of the National Science Foundation is instructing a group of 15 girls in refresher shorthand. The Refresher course runs until May 31.

Pic. No. 3 -- The Basic Russian course completed this week. The small group worked very hard under the tutorage of Mr. Stambul-Shiek. Among other things, they had fun working on Russian poems. If more FAA'ers are interested, we will repeat this course in the Fall.

FUTURE FA CLUB COURSES

When our Refresher Shorthand course ends on May 31, the Club Education Programs will have a summer vacation. However, those interested in a Basic Investment course should contact John Cunningham, Ext. 3088. If enough are interested, we will start a course this summer.

TRAVEL NEWS

CIRCLE TOUR DRAWS MANY "REPEATERS"

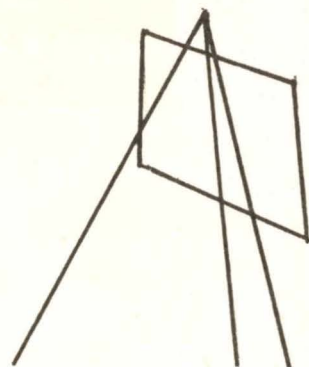

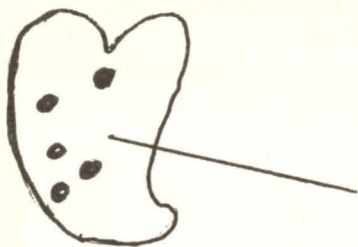

Two FA Club members, June and Lambert Champion of Honolulu are joining the Club's chartered jet flight in September and are taking the 10-country deluxe motorcoach tour. June is an active staff member of PAC Region's personnel office and an earnest and interested traveler.

We understand that the tour they are going on not only draws members from far-away places but also attracts many members who have gone on other FA Club tours. Helen Brewer from WNA, Mildred Rice, PT-23 and Helen Radcliffe who took advantage of the Club's special motorcoach tour of France, Spain and Portugal last year are getting ready for another trip to Europe this time to visit Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Leichtenstein, San Marino, Italy, Monaco, France and England.

"It isn't just the idea of getting a wonderful 30-day vacation for $824.00 that I like", said one of these travelers, "I like the idea of traveling in comfort, with no worries about luggage and reservations. This way I can concentrate on my sightseeing - and when I travel with a congenial group I add to my own knowledge and pleasure by hearing their ideas and impressions."

This year's tour starts in Brussels and ends in London with 30-days of wonderful sightseeing and adventure. There are still some seats available on the chartered jet for those who want to take this trip. If you want more information call Mildred Rice on x4986 or write to her care of the FA Club Travel Committee, Washington, D. C.

The price of the tour, including airfare is $824.00 per person. This includes transportation, superior first class hotels, all meals(except a few where we know you'll want to have the pleasure of experimenting on your own,) tips, taxes, admission fees to places of interest...Oh,yes, the extras? A cocktail and get-together party in Brussels, a cheese-fondue party in Lucerne, Switzerland, a chairlift trip to one of the most beautiful mountains in Switzerland, a visit to Pompeii the Italian and French Rivierayou'd better call Mildred and ask her to send you an itinerary. Her number? x4986.

2ND CHARTERED PLANE TO LEAVE FOR EUROPE SEPTEMBER 9

EVERYONE IS GOING.....to Europe....and that is the truth! Everyone is taking a European vacation this year if the number of FA Club members who have made reservations on the chartered flights is any indication. And who wouldn't go..when the cost of the round trip trans-atlantic flight is only $209 and $220 per person.

The first chartered plane was sold out within three weeks of the first announcement. A second plane is chartered. It is a Sabena DC-7 and will leave from Friendship Airport on the 9th of September for Brussels and will return from London on the 13th of October. A 34-day vacation for FA Club members and the round trip airfare is $220. Call Mildred Rice on x4986 or Rosina Jacobi on x4223 for details. Only don't wait too long, the plane is almost full.

EUROPE AND MIDDLE EAST TOUR

Rome, Athens, Cairo, Jerusalem, Istanbul, Vienna....places to dream about can become realities for those who join the FA Clubs Europe and Middle East Tour. Lois Heinrichs, AF-333 has all the information and a telephone call to her will bring you all the details about the most interesting trip the club has sponsored this year.
