DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION HEADQUARTERS BUILDINGS

No. 158

SPECIAL EDITION

February 4, 1977

TO ALL DOT EMPLOYEES:

I invite all employees to share in Black History Month which is being observed in the Department of Transportation throughout February.

As Americans we can, and should, take pride in our diverse ethnic and cultural backgrounds. Moreover, we can each benefit from an increased awareness of the many heritages which, taken together, encompass the American dream, comprise the American adventure, and constitute the American spirit.

Let us, during February in particular, salute those Black Americans whose achievements in transportation, as in other fields of national significance, have contributed to the progress of our country and the betterment of our society. I encourage you to join with me in honoring Black Americans by taking the opportunities that the special films and exhibits afford to become better acquainted with Black history and heritage.
